

Sing

Singing Workshop with Brendan Taaffe American singing leader

“Witty, charismatic, and unflagging in his enthusiasm.”

Explore the richness of world harmony traditions: songs with compelling rhythms and evocative harmonies, from participatory traditions that draw people together all around the world.

Brendan is the director of the Bright Wings Chorus, the founder of Turtle Dove, and a former member of Northern Harmony. He has led vocal workshops in Ireland, Bulgaria, Canada, England, France, Scotland, Germany, Holland, New Zealand, the U.S., and Zimbabwe. Brendan is known for his dynamic conducting, and his gift for bringing out everyone's talents.

For more about Brendan, visit www.brendantaaffe.com.

All parts will be taught by ear, no experience necessary.
Singing is a birthright for us all: come and sing!

Monday 17 March, 7.30–9.30pm
Hillhead Baptist Church Hall, Cresswell St
Glasgow G12 8AE
£7 (£5 student/unemployed)

Hosted by Voicebeat
www.voicebeat.org